New York, July 20.-The St. Louis Browns today seriously impaired the winning streak started by the Yanks when pitched great ball in the first when it was necessary to stave off defeat. In the fourth the locals filled the bars and toward the end pushed men to second and third, but failed to score in both the locals filled the local filled the locals filled the locals filled the locals filled the local fil

Brown. The same went a glimmering in the third, two passes and a single filled the bags and Pratt doubled scering two. Leary's double added another and routed Brown finishing. Scores:
